

QUEENS' SCHOOL
Dare to Dramatise

We have had a very busy half-term in the Drama Dept.

We were very proud of our Year 7 Drama Club students who devised their own scene and then performed in front of a packed hall on Open Evening. They showed real tenacity!

This year the school production is Alice In Wonderland. We have over 100 students involved both on stage and as part of the Technical Team and Band. All the students are working really hard and showing great commitment coming to rehearsals on Tuesdays and Wednesdays after school. Tickets will go on sale soon on Wisepay - please look out for this and buy your tickets! (See the poster for more information)

Our A-level students enjoyed a trip to the theatre earlier this month. We went to see Abigail's Party at Theatre Royal Stratford East. We all had a really enjoyable evening. Year 11 GCSE students also enjoyed a trip to the theatre. We went to Aylesbury Waterside Theatre to watch a performance of Cluedo. The students will be writing about this production for their mock exam in December.

Our Year 10 GCSE students started their course this half-term by creating Theatre In Education performances about staying safe at Halloween. We were able to book in two primary school visits, and the Year 10 students were great ambassadors for the school, performing to and working with Year 3 and 4 children at Bournehall and Bushey Manor.

We wish everyone a lovely half-term.
