

QUEENS' SCHOOL

Dare to be Great

Head of Computer Science

TLR 2b

MPS/UPS + London Fringe

Contract Term: Permanent

Closing date: Midday Friday 1st May 2026

We are looking to appoint an exceptional teacher and inspirational leader of Computer Science to lead and develop a department committed to excellence.

This is an exciting opportunity for a candidate who believes that education can transform lives through learning. We are highly committed to the effective use of ICT and to the continued growth and innovation of Computing across the school.

We strive to recruit outstanding teachers who can consistently deliver high quality, engaging lessons and who are driven to achieve the very best outcomes for students.

Candidates should have a teaching degree, QTS, PGCE/PGDE or equivalent, recognised for the purposes of teaching in the UK.

Applications to the Headteacher, Jonathan Morrell, to include school application form, covering letter and full contact details of two referees applications@queens.herts.sch.uk

You must complete all parts of the application form. CV's are not accepted.

In accordance with DfE Keeping Children Safe in Education, an online search will be completed on all shortlisted applicants prior to interview.

Our ideal candidate will:

- have a genuine passion for the subject and the ability to share this with our students
- have the resolve to make a real difference with students of all abilities and backgrounds;
- have the ability to guide students to outstanding outcomes;
- have the capacity to work collaboratively as part of a team.

We can offer:

- happy and enthusiastic students who want to learn;
- supportive parents and carers who value education and school community;
- a professionally stimulating and supportive working environment;
- a strong commitment to personalised professional development and progression, including access to National Professional Qualifications, peer-to-peer learning, and opportunities for internal promotion;
- a commitment to encouraging and supporting staff wellbeing.

All staff benefit from high quality continuing professional development opportunities and there is a comprehensive induction, support and training programme for ECTs.

Queens' is a large, co-educational, multicultural, thriving, and oversubscribed school. We have a well-established reputation for academic achievement for all students, with excellent attainment and progress outcomes. We provide a safe, caring and challenging environment for learning, and are committed to the development of every student as an individual. We understand that while students have different gifts and talents we have a strong belief that everyone can be Great.

In March 2025, Ofsted judged Queens' School as Outstanding in every category. The inspectors were hugely impressed with the quality of all staff, teachers and support staff alike, for the strength of their subject knowledge and ability to facilitate learning to the highest level.

We seek the best opportunities and outcomes for all students and are rightly proud of our commitment to inclusivity and equalities. In 2023, we were awarded the Gold Award in Equalities from Equaliteach.

Queens' School is committed to being an equal opportunities employer. We insist on the equal treatment of all current and prospective colleagues and will never condone discrimination on the basis of age, disability, sex, sexual orientation, pregnancy and maternity, race or ethnicity, religion or belief, gender identity, or marriage and civil partnership.

To help us meet our high standards and aspirations of a fully diverse and inclusive workplace, we strongly encourage suitably qualified applicants from all backgrounds to apply and to join us.

We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. All posts are exempted under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. Appointments will be conditional upon the receipt of a satisfactory response to a check of police records via the Disclosure and Barring Service and references from previous employers. We are an Equal Opportunities employer.
