

QUEENS' SCHOOL
Dare to Dramatise

We have had a very busy half-term in the Drama Department!

Our Year 7 Drama Club did a fantastic job at Open Evening performing to a hall full of prospective parents and students, celebrating Queens' School. They were fantastic and showed all our STAR values through their commitment. Year 7 Drama Club runs every Monday lunchtime in the Drama studio.

We have booked tickets for the whole of Year 7 to go and see Cinderella at Watford Palace Theatre on Thursday 14th December. We are excited to take the whole year group to this, and a reminder that tickets are still available on Wisepay to book your space!

Rehearsals are well underway for our whole school production of Matilda. We are doing 4 nights this year from 28th November to 1st December and tickets will be available on Wisepay after half-term. Make sure you book yours early, it promises to be a fantastic show!

Year 10 GCSE Drama students have been working on some Theatre in Education performance over the last few weeks, and in the last week of this half-term visited 2 primary schools, Bournehall and Highwood, to perform their 'staying safe at Halloween' pieces and helping Year 3 pupils in a Drama workshop. The students made us very proud with their altruism towards the primary school children.

We have taken Year 11 Drama students to the theatre this half-term. We went to watch The Woman in Black at Aylesbury Theatre in preparation for the mock exam. An enjoyable afternoon was had by all.

We hope everyone has a wonderful half-term!
