

Dare to be Musical

This term has been an incredibly busy time for the Music Department!

We are very proud to have relaunched the annual House Music competition - congratulations Seacole on your well-deserved win!

We saw so much talent and potential on stage from every house - and we are very excited to see and hear more next year!

Year 9 also had their annual Battle of the Bands competition just before Easter, resulting in some spectacular performances of famous pop songs.

On 10th May we held a fabulous Piano Through the Ages recital, which took us through the development of piano music in Baroque, Classical, Romantic and 20th Century eras. Some beautiful playing from students in almost every year group coupled with great narrative by Mr Penhaligon allowed us to raise a whopping £335 to go towards our piano tuning fund.

Last but not least, on 23rd May our Year 12 A-level music students led a wonderful workshop at the Longwood primary school. As usual, it was a wonderfully bonding musical experience for Year 12 and the younger students alike.

The events do not stop there; as usual, we have quite a busy time ahead, starting with a GCSE and A-level showcase, where our Year 10 and Year 12 students get an opportunity to perform their coursework pieces to the audiences.

In July we will be collaborating with the Drama department to create a Musical Fairytales event for Year 7, where students will get a chance to present musical numbers from different musicals and readings from famous fairy tales. This will be followed by the Summer Concert, which this year has a jukebox format, where audience request songs and pieces that they would like to hear. With 20 students already signed up, we are very excited to hear their takes on famous songs!
