

YOU SAID, WE DID

Why are the prices high?

We are very careful on how we price our menus. With food costs going up, we need to ensure we price our food items at the correct level to offer the best possible value in consideration to the increase of ingredients and other food products.

by culinera